

WHAT TO DO EACH DAY WHEN YOU'RE ON A FIXED INCOME

Free and low-cost places in Atlanta that give your week structure — and a way forward

Too much empty time is one of the hardest parts of living on a fixed income. These are the best free options we know of in metro Atlanta: real training, real volunteer work, and real places to be. Pick one and start this week.

LEARN A SKILL — FREE OR NEARLY FREE

Goodwill Technology Career Program

A free 16-week program with industry certifications, job placement support, meals during training, and a free laptop when you finish. Requires a high school diploma or GED.

Goodwill of North Georgia • goodwillng.org

Atlanta Technical College — HOPE Career Grant

Tuition-free certificate programs in cybersecurity, CompTIA A+, programming, networking, and more for eligible Georgia residents. Also offers Certified Nursing Assistant training.

1560 Metropolitan Pkwy SW • (404) 225-4400

Free GED / HiSET classes + a $200 test-fee grant

Classes are free. The HOPE GED/HiSET Grant covers up to $200 toward your test fees if you're eligible. Apply online before you test.

Classes: (404) 802-3560 • Grant: HSEtest4Free.com

Goodwill Career Centers — 14 metro locations

Free computer and internet access, resume help, job search support, and skills training. Open to everyone, including people with a record.

Find your nearest one at goodwillng.org

Also worth asking about: federally funded (WIOA) CNA training for adults on low or fixed incomes. Ask at any Goodwill Career Center or WorkSource office.

GIVE BACK — AND GET OUT OF THE HOUSE

Atlanta Community Food Bank — Community Food Center

Help hand out food directly to families. Roles are simple and no experience is needed.

3500 Martin Luther King Jr Dr SW, Atlanta 30331 • acfb.org/volunteer

Atlanta Habitat for Humanity

Building and non-building roles, including ReStore and events. No experience necessary.

atlantahabitat.org/volunteer

Meals On Wheels Atlanta

Prep and deliver meals to homebound seniors. Ongoing needs, and a real reason to be somewhere.

mowatl.org

RECOVERY MEETINGS — IF THAT'S PART OF YOUR PATH

Two of the most consistent meetings on the metro Atlanta list:

Hard Knocks — 10:00 AM, Monday through Saturday

Highland Club, 2163 Flat Shoals Road, Atlanta 30316. Wheelchair accessible.

High Noon Group — Noon, most days

365 Center, 1472 Richard Road, Decatur 30032. Wheelchair accessible.

Meeting times and locations change often. Confirm before your first visit at na-atlanta.org or aa-atlanta.org.

A SAMPLE WEEK

Mon	Career center visit: resume, job search, free computer time
Tue	Class or training day (GED, technical college, certification)
Wed	Volunteer shift
Thu	Class, plus a noon meeting if it's part of your path
Fri	Job search or a second volunteer shift
Sat	Habitat build, meeting, or community time
Sun	Rest, faith community, family

YOUR THREE STEPS THIS WEEK

1. Call or visit one program above and ask what the next start date is.
2. Sign up for one volunteer shift.
3. Put one standing commitment on your calendar and keep it for four weeks.

Structure works better with a stable home behind it.

At New Creation Living, a house manager, rewards for free rent and gift cards, meeting and work/school resources, and a financial growth course are all built in. $775 a month, everything included, no deposit, no credit check.

newcreationliving.org

or call (404) 731-2371

New Creation Living | Atlanta, GA | "From Benefits to Belonging"

Programs, hours, and eligibility change. Always confirm details directly with each organization. New Creation Living is not affiliated with the organizations listed.